Don't Take Our Word for it...

This was the perfect 4th of July get away! Daryl kept in touch with me the whole process with my questions and concerns, and as soon as we arrived to the home he greeted us, and my dog, with a smile and showed us his beautiful property with excitement. We will, without a doubt, be returning. Thank you Daryl and Margita for allowing us to stay! It truly was a home away from home.

Cozy cabin in Oxford, Wis., four miles west of Westfield, with acres of nature ... all to yourself!

Relaxation beckons.
The silence summons. Nature calls.
Do you hear it?

When the answer is "yes," retreat to this green getaway, a slice of private paradise surrounded by acres of woods and the creatures that inhabit them.

That's all ... and before long you'll realize it's all you need.

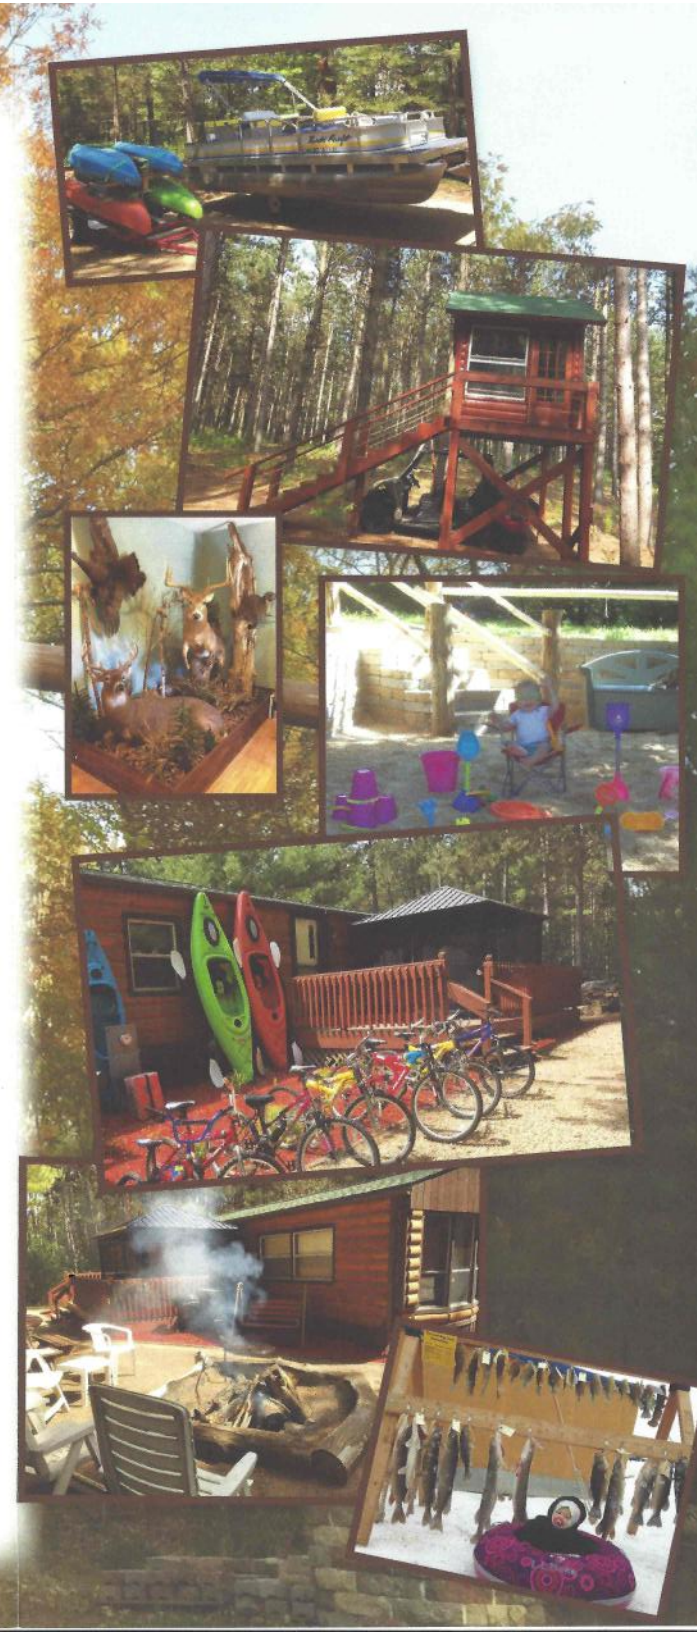

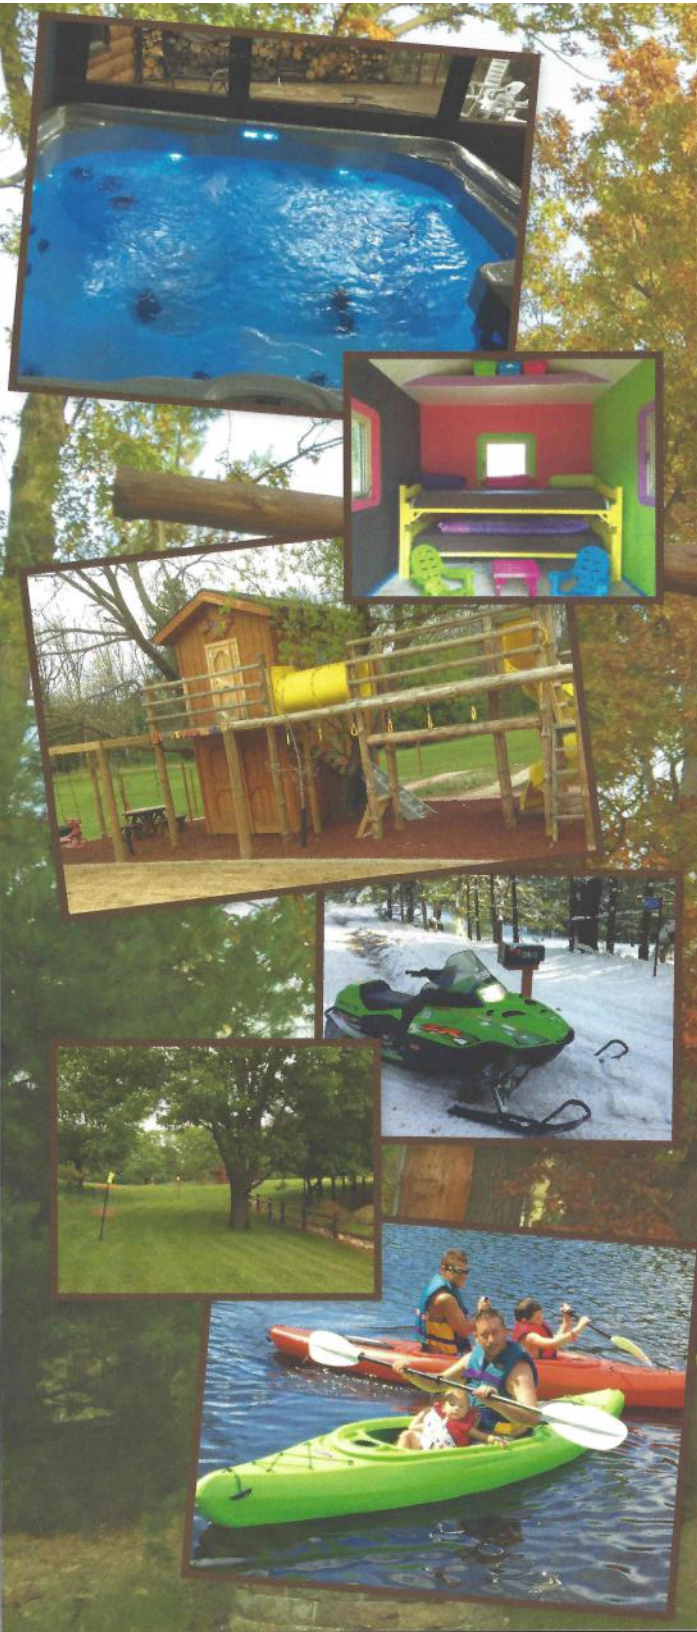

The tranquility of the trees takes over. Sitting in the six-person hot tub, or around a blazing fire pit, the worries and stresses of daily life disappear. You wanted to get away from it all ... and you have.

No need to be bored. There's plenty of water nearby. Go toss a fishing line, or launch your boat. Like to move around? Hike or bike on manicured trails. Take the paths on snowshoes or cross-country skis in winter.

Snowmobile trails aren't far off, either. Fall brings bow and gun hunting for deer and turkey. Chisel a few holes in the nearby lakes for winter ice fishing. Spring offers more turkey hunting. And while you're close to nature, you're not far from civilization. Golf, dining and the attractions of Wisconsin Dells are just a few miles away.

The abundant wildlife is active enough. Maybe you'd just like to sit and watch in our new nature viewing cabin, maybe coffee in the morning or a glass of wine at sunset.

Here's the real beauty, though: You can do as much - or as little - as you like. It's your choice. Time seems to slow ... but the days go fast. Once you leave, you might be wondering how soon you can come back.
